HITN and Barnes & Noble Kick off Free Fun Family Events to Celebrate Hispanic Heritage all Month Long!

This past weekend, HITN Learning, a division of HITN kicked off the first of a month-long series of Hispanic Heritage Month events in San Diego, CA titled Raising Bilingual Children in today's multicultural world at select Barnes & Noble locations.

These family fun events took place in heavily Hispanic populated areas in order to raise awareness on this important topic. Families enjoyed a fun afternoon, learning from renowned bilingual educational expert and TEDx speaker Dr. Mariana Diaz-Wionczek, who provided valuable tips on the benefits of raising bilingual children.

Children enjoyed storytelling, arts and crafts for preschoolers, face painting, giveaways and prizes. These events are free and open to the public.
